1. Covenant Day Message

“One Heart in the Father for the Family of God”

Dear Schoenstatt Family and Friends,

Greetings and blessings for this Covenant Day – 18th November. During this month we remember two significant dates in our Schoenstatt Family history. The first is November 16th – the anniversary of the birth of Father Kentenich (1885).

The second is November 20th – the anniversary of the death of Venerable Sr. M. Emilie Engel (1955).

November is also a time when we remember all those who have died. We remember the members of our own family and close friends, and we give thanks for the example they left us and all they did for us during their time here on earth.

We also remember the members of our Australian Schoenstatt Family who have died, particularly those who have died during these past twelve months and the contribution they made to Schoenstatt in Australia.

On the occasion of the Silver Jubilee of Ordination of Father Kentenich (8th July 1935, but celebrated on 11th August 1935), he said he wanted to use the celebration to thank “all Schoenstatt children, the dead, the living and generations to come.”

This address sheds light on the specific originality of Schoenstatt’s spirituality – the interweaving of destinies and the organism of bonding. In this address he said:

3. National Conference
4. Crowning Anniversary
5. Welcome Home Sr. M. Rita
6. Pilgrim Mother Annual Retreat

"Our deceased are not dead; they are with us today. The work that has been created here is just as much the work of those who co – operated with me. I am inconceivable without you. My whole work cannot be explained without your most personal and profound co – operation. This applies in the first place to our dead.

Our departed work on through their heroic example; they work on because they embodied, sometimes in a heroic way, what we see today as a great idea in the heavens of our lives. We hope to God, and admit with great gratitude, that they work on through their intercession, through praying for us together with the Mother Thrice Admirable of Schoenstatt. Yes, the hymns of thanksgiving must rise to a crescendo far more than they have done until now.

The Family has brought forth great people. We want to remain true to them. Faithfulness to them is faithfulness to our MTA, to our shrine, to our ideal.

But we also want to remain true to the coming generation. We have a task to fulfil for the coming generation. We bear responsibility for the coming generation, for our future history.

Yet we also want to swear that we will be faithful to one another..... How much mutual faithfulness we need when we are out in the world! We need faithfulness if our whole Family is to become an organic entity at a time when so many conflicting trends are at large.

The less we can live our way of life together, the more we want to swear simple faithfulness to one another. Loyalty for loyalty, love for love!

So let it be, we remain loyal!"

Here in Australia, we remember those Sisters, Fathers, members from all States and from all branches– the Families, Mothers, Women, Men, Young Men, Young Women, Girls and members of the Pilgrim Mother Apostolate, who are no longer with us and who witnessed to Schoenstatt through their loyalty to their Covenant of Love.

We give thanks for their faithfulness to Schoenstatt's mission and for their contribution to Schoenstatt in Australia.

"One heart in the Father, for the family of God"

May the lives of Father Kentenich and Sr. M. Emilie continue to be examples for us of the way to live the mission we have been given in Schoenstatt, through our Mother Thrice Admirable, Queen and Victress of Schoenstatt, and the graces and blessings she showers on us from her shrines.

United in our Covenant,

Shirley Hall

2. Our MTA in Melbourne

A 'New Home' for our MTA in Melbourne, Victoria

Many of us have been praying that our Mother Thrice Admirable shows us a positive way into the future since our First Shrine in Australia, blessed on 12th May, 1952, was demolished earlier in the year.

We want to thank everyone for the prayers and contributions to the Capital of Grace which have moved our MTA to clearly show us a way forward. We truly believe that our Blessed Mother has cared and been victorious.

Pallotine and Salesian assistance

From the previous reports you will know that when the Shrine needed to be emptied in February 2023, the Pallottine Community generously gave us all the removable items in the Shrine.

The most precious was of course the 'original' picture of our Mother Thrice Admirable which found its home for some months in the Chapel of the Don Bosco Retreat Centre in Lysterfield, east of Melbourne.

We are very grateful for the welcome the Salesian Community gave us, but unfortunately our dream to be able to offer our MTA some permanent place on that property was not in God's plan.

Journey to the new home at St Luke's

In August as we celebrated our annual feast around 15th August, Our Lady offered us a new possibility – a home in the parish of St. Luke's Wantirna, not too far from Lysterfield. After negotiations with the parish priest and parish council we were ready to bring the picture of grace of our MTA to its 'new home'.

Thanksgiving in Lysterfield

On 15th October about 50 members of our Schoenstatt Family in Melbourne gathered at Lysterfield to thank the Blessed Mother for her guidance and for the graces she has interceded for us while she was with the Salesian community.

Then with 15 cars we made a car procession – all praying the rosary during the 20-minute drive to St. Luke's parish. Here we placed the picture of grace beside the altar during Holy Mass which the parish priest, Fr. Joseph Amal celebrated for about 80 Schoenstatters. More had gathered at the parish itself.

The celebration for the new home

We had a solemn Holy Mass celebrating Schoenstatt's Foundation Day. The joy was tangible.

Following the Mass, we processed to the Chapel of Divine Mercy at the back of St. Luke's Church where our Mother Thrice Admirable found her new home – until she reveals to us further steps. Naturally the longing is for a replica of the Shrine.

In the newly found home we prayed together, inviting the Blessed Mother to take up her home in the Divine Mercy Chapel as she has done in her Schoenstatt Shrines throughout the world.

MTA in her new home in Divine Mercy Chapel

Listening to the words of Fr Kentenich

During this celebration and before renewing our Covenant of Love, we listened to words of our father and founder which he wrote for the blessing of the Shrine in 1952.

Among other things, Fr. Kentenich wrote:

"... The picture of our dear Mother of God should stand before the minds of people in a splendour of light and colour and be imprinted in their hearts in such a way as has happened only seldom in the past.

She goes through the world as the great educator of the people. Everywhere she wants to bring forth Christ again, in order to save the endangered Christian personality, human society and the whole world.

*She goes through the world
as the great educator of the people.*

Today she solemnly chooses this Shrine to be her favourite place, the place where she offers graces and is especially active.

From here she will distribute her treasures and take in hand the education of the people and their leaders. She does this under the title of Mother Thrice Admirable and Queen of Schoenstatt. ... Everywhere she gives to those who honour her the grace of transformation, of a home and of fruitfulness in rich measure...

Everywhere people find their way to her Shrines. However, they do not come with empty hands; they bring rich gifts.

They do not grow tired of offering to God's Mother the sacrifices of their serious efforts in self-education which co-operation with grace demands of them in everyday life.... From today onward, the Mother of God also expects such earnest co-operation with grace from us.

In the Divine Mercy Chapel

She calls upon us in a similar way as she did in 1914 at the Shrine in Schoenstatt: Do not worry about the fulfilment of your wishes. Ego diligentes me diligo... Prove first by your deeds that you love me ..., then I will prove that I love you. ..."
(J. Kentenich 11.5.1952)

*She calls upon us in a similar way
as she did in 1914
at the Shrine
in Schoenstatt*

We also prayed in our celebration:

"Dear Mother Thrice Admirable, Queen and Victress of Schoenstatt, ... Through your picture of grace, we invite you to be present with us in this Chapel.

Come and dwell with us as you have done in the Shrine in Kew since the 11th May 1952.

It is as though, by finding a new home for your picture of grace in this Divine Mercy Chapel... you are reminding us that you wish to lead us to your Divine Son and to the Heavenly Father so that we may always be at home in their hearts and experience their merciful love. We thank you from our hearts.

We give thanks for the openness and generosity of the Parish of St. Luke's who have welcomed us here. May all parishioners experience the graces of a home, of transformation and apostolic fruitfulness which you intercede for us in your Schoenstatt Shrines..."

The parish of St. Luke's

In the parish of St. Luke's our Schoenstatt members will be able to visit and bring their contributions to the Capital of Grace whenever the Church is open. Visit the Website:
<http://www.stlukeswantirna.net>

This includes daily Mass, times of adoration and reciting the rosary as well as several hours when the Church is open during school hours.

At the MTA's new home

An explanation of the Capital of Grace has been placed at the foot of the picture of grace together with slips indicating what is being offered to our Schoenstatt Mother and Queen as well as what is being asked for.

We are hoping that parishioners will experience the intercession of our MTA in this little Chapel in a similar way that is possible in all Schoenstatt Shrines. Our Melbourne Schoenstatt Family is fully aware of the importance of their contributions so that Our Lady can be fruitful.

3. National Conference

‘Walking Together - Loving the Church’

Australia’s Schoenstatt National Conference

Our National Movement Conference held over the weekend 21–22 October 2023 saw many of us gathered in person at Mulgoa and at Mount Richon in Perth as well as many other individuals joining via Zoom from WA, Qld, Vic, and NSW. This ‘hybrid’ offer for our Conference this year allowed a greater participation for all Schoenstatt members across Australia.

Pope Francis’ visions: Fr Pawel

With the theme “Walking together – Loving the Church” we first listened to Fr. Pawel Barszczewski OP unfold Pope Francis’ view of a renewed Church, as he explained the three key elements of a synodal process: Encounter, Listen and Discern and how we as the Church go along this synodal process through Communion, Participation, Mission.

Schoenstatt a ‘synodal’ Church in miniature: Fr Ivanhoe

Fr. Ivanhoe, whom some of you will remember from the time when Father was working with us years ago (he himself mentioned that it will be 17 years since he left Australia), unfolded how Schoenstatt has been a ‘synodal’ Church in miniature since the beginning through a video presentation.

He showed us how, without using the vocabulary of ‘synodality’, our father and founder used the method of ‘walking together’ throughout Schoenstatt’s history.

Fr. Ivanhoe illustrated this by highlighting examples from the first three milestones. For many it was a joy to experience the wisdom of Fr. Ivanhoe once again – it was only sad that we could not engage with him in person.

Synodality in our history, structure, and spirituality: Sr Thomasine

In the third and final session of the first day Sr. M. Thomasine explained the aspects of synodality in the history, structure, and spirituality of Schoenstatt, using as a base an article in “Regnum 2023” by Dr. Maria Pelz.

This presentation was an excellent supplement to Fr. Ivanhoe’s input and we were all proud to recognise that using a ‘synodal’ approach has been Fr. Kentenich’s way of leadership from the beginning: the “WE, not I” but together with the governing principle of “Authoritative in principle, democratic in application”.

In a summary of this part of the Conference Sr. M. Elizabeth commented:

“As Pope Francis has rightly said: a synod is not a parliament. As in any family there will be a last principle / authority, but not without first having taken time to listen, pray and discern.

The Holy Spirit will speak to us, guide us as long as we empty ourselves of our own selfish wishes to be open for what God wants to tell us.

We have learnt anew that we have to listen 'deeply' so that a real encounter takes place. This means education on our part. How often when we are listening, our actual attention is focused on what we may answer to what has been said, instead of listening first to what the person is telling us. The Holy Spirit will prompt us with what we should respond – often silence will be the best response."

We have learnt anew that we have to listen 'deeply' so that a real encounter takes place.

The second day

The second day of the conference took on a more 'practical' approach as we listened to three statements, one each from a Schoenstatt member from WA, VIC and NSW. They shared with us their personal experience, answering the question: "How has belonging to the Schoenstatt Movement helped you to walk with and love the Church on the new shore?" There was a great diversity in experiences but a common gratitude for the Schoenstatt spirituality in the way each one is able to share their faith and experience in their family, parish and community.

Throughout the Conference, following each session, there were group discussions and the opportunity to share thoughts and experiences with the wider group.

These times were greatly appreciated and helped us to reach a final conclusion that, in the midst of the turmoil of our times, whether in Church or society, we are being called to 'walk together' in the sense that we 'diligently bring our contributions to the Capital of Grace'. When we are serious about our contributions, our Blessed Mother will be able to intercede the graces we need to love and serve the Church in our own particular situations.

4. Crowning Anniversary

Rydalmere Region

Prior to the time of COVID, the Pilgrim Mother Apostolate coordinators as well as our members in the Rydalmere Region would come together regularly for our Schoenstatt formation, meetings, and Covenant Renewal. We would come together every year to celebrate the Crowning Anniversary at the Church of the Holy Name of Mary where our Mother Thrice Admirable was crowned. We would pray, say the rosary, and celebrate the Crowning Anniversary.

During the pandemic times, the Crowning Anniversary was celebrated via zoom. So recently, as the Crowning Anniversary of our Mother Thrice Admirable – Mother of Mercy and Queen of the Family was approaching, we were quite unsure, whether we could all gather for the celebration. We discussed it and decided to come together to celebrate the anniversary on the 8th of October.

So, on the second Sunday of October 2023, a small number of us came together to celebrate the 7th anniversary of the crowning of our MTA – Mother of Mercy and Queen of the Family. We began our spiritual celebration with Adoration of the Exposed Blessed Sacrament in the Chapel of the Church of Holy Name of Mary.

This was followed by the recitation of the Holy Rosary in front of the crowned MTA in the Meeting Room. Praying the Rosary, we reflected on the Joyful Mysteries, entreating silently our special intentions at each decade of the rosary. Every year at our anniversary, we remember our past members and coordinators who are no longer with us and include them in our spiritual intentions on this day.

This was followed by our group discussion where we had a reflection on ‘Mother You Deserve a Crown’ (by Carlos Cantu – Schoenstatt Movement.) We discussed why we crown our Blessed Mother? First, God Himself crowned Her Queen. Her Son is the King of the Universe so through God’s plan His Mother must be Queen at the side of Her Son. As a Queen, She also has an ‘infinite power.’ (St Thomas Aquinas) One person commented on the scene at the ‘Wedding at Cana’ and yes, we all agreed that with just a few words from our Blessed Mother, we also ought to do ‘what He tells us to do.’ Another comment was that in crowning our Blessed Mother we show our meekness and humility. We acknowledge our helplessness and incapacities as Our Lady educates and forms us as we go through the many challenges and trials in our lives, the ups and downs of being Her instruments in our apostolate. It was wonderful to hear as well, when another said, that we need to place our trust blindly in our Blessed Mother especially in these troubled times, in our fallen world – Yes, Mother, ‘Nothing without you, Nothing without us.’

After our inspiring group discussion, we sang some Marian hymns, ‘Hail Holy Queen Enthroned Above’ and ‘Ave Maria Gracia Plena.’ This was then followed by afternoon tea and an opportunity to catch up with one other.

As we were at first undecided when would be the best date to celebrate this special occasion, it seemed that our Blessed Mother made the decision. Her time to have a special celebration of Her Crowning Anniversary, was the day after the Feast of the Holy Rosary. This left us all with hearts filled with crowning joy.

5. Welcome Home Sr. M. Rita

"What a great joy it is that you are finally back!"
"Thanks be to God that you have returned home to us in Mulgoa!" "We have been praying for you continuously and are pleased to have you back!"
"I look forward to seeing you around and experiencing your passion for Schoenstatt!"

These are just some of the positive comments that Sr. M. Rita Baysari received on Sunday 22nd October when the Schoenstatt Family in Sydney gathered to celebrate Schoenstatt's Foundation Day (18th October) and to welcome Sr. M. Rita back to Australia after being in Germany for nearly ten years.

Sr. M. Rita, previously known as Christina Rita Baysari, is a 35-year-old Sydney sider with a Maronite, Lebanese background. After being heavily involved in her local Merrylands parish Saint Margaret Marys, working as a teacher at Greystanes High School and participating in the various youth events in Schoenstatt she decided to enter the community of the Schoenstatt Sister of Mary.

In 2014 she moved to Schoenstatt, Germany to begin her formation journey and on September 6th 2015, gave her YES of love to God's calling! This was the day that she first put on the sisters' dress and took on the name of Sr. M. Rita.

Following the October Covenant Sunday Holy Mass there was a short renewal of the Covenant of Love in the shrine for those who were unable to stay for the afternoon. Afterwards the Schoenstatt community gathered and shared together a delicious lunch with a very special dessert being a birthday cake to commemorate the 109th birthday of Schoenstatt!

Sr. M. Rita then gave a testimony and was able to share some photos of her experiences during the nine and half years that she was in Germany. Through her statement Sr. M. Rita impressed upon the audience that the aspect that helped her the most during her vocation journey was the Covenant of Love with the Mother Thrice Admirable, that the blessed Mother was going along with her every step of the way, and that she could always find her in the shrine. She was impressed with the freedom that the founder stressed upon each of the members of the Schoenstatt Sisters of Mary and that the personal happiness and holiness of each of the members was of the highest priority in all stages of formation.

Outside the periods of her formation Sr. M. Rita was working for the Pilgrim Mother Apostolate and the English Office in Germany. Through the English Office Sr. M. Rita was able to welcome and show the English-speaking pilgrims around in Schoenstatt, Germany.

She testified “that although it was at first difficult to adjust to a new country and language my time in the Original Schoenstatt in Germany was such a rewarding and fulfilling experience.”

After gathering many experiences in the International Schoenstatt Movement, Sr. M. Rita is now back in Australia to continue to spread and develop the Schoenstatt Mission in Australia – to form the new person in the new community. Or more precisely to become and help form little Marys for today’s world.

Sr. M. Rita enthusiastically shared: “I am excited to meet, encounter and serve the youth and young adults of Sydney and to go along with them on their own personal journeys of love”.

6. Pilgrim Mother Annual Retreat

Annual Retreat for Pilgrim Mother Coordinators and Members

The Annual Retreat for Pilgrim Mother Coordinators and members was held on the 28th of October 2023, Saturday at the Family Hall, Mt Schoenstatt, Mulgoa. Our speaker was Fr Pawel Barszczewski O.P. and our theme was ‘Know that I am with you always’ (Mt 28:20). It was such an amazing group of pilgrims. The warm welcoming of each other made you feel as though ‘it’s been a long time since we met’

Fr Pawel’s talk was enlightening and encouraged us to know that we have been chosen and called for a mission. At break time there was a great interaction. All felt connected and I believe the thoughts, inspirations and motivations given us, reminded us that we are part of our PMA family. We prayed and gave thanks to our Blessed Mother who had accompanied us during the difficulties, struggles and challenges of the Covid times. “Nothing without you Mother, Nothing without us”.

We thanked Fr Pawel for his unending support of the PMA, as adviser and counsellor, and so on this day we were delighted to be able to join him in celebrating his milestone birthday.

Some reflections shared by the Coordinators

- Last Saturday was a very fruitful and spirit-filled day. The talk of Fr Pawel was very enlightening and reminded us again that God is always in our midst. I was also very happy that nine of my friends responded to my invitation to attend and their feedback was very positive. I thank the Holy Spirit and our Mother for their promptings.
- From Menai Prayer Group (Schoenstatt Coordinators) – ‘we had an enlightening spiritual retreat. Fr Pawel’s talk gave us a good understanding of our role in spreading the Good News, in whatever capacity or situation we are in. It may not be easy to do, but the words of Jesus ‘Know that I am with you’ may help us gain wisdom, courage and perseverance to do what we can. In prayer and in practical ways, may we be inspired by the Holy Spirit to be true disciples of Jesus. Thank you to the PMA organisers for the smooth running of the day and the food and drinks that gave us ‘fuel’ for the body. We were fully nourished on the day, both body and soul.’
- It was well attended, well organised, stayed on time.
- Pilgrims very happy to see each other.
- Learned something, God with us always.
- It was our first time to attend a Schoenstatt Retreat. We found it solemn and highly spiritual. The talk of the Dominican priest Fr Pawel was amazing. It made us think back and reflect, and that we can relate it to our everyday practical life, learn lots from it. The Benediction was solemn and uplifting, the people around us were all friendly and accommodating– it was a day very well spent.
- The PMA retreat had the following positives for me as a Coordinator, 1) most important thing was the full participation in the Holy Mass during which I was able to receive communion, 2) participation in exposition of the Blessed Sacrament where I was able to pray for one hour with the Lord, 3) one to one Sacrament of Reconciliation. Fr Pawel & Sr Rita’s presentations were powerful & touching.

7. Youth Events in Perth

Daughters of Mary Spring Events 2023: A Program for Mothers and their Daughters in Perth

Mother Daughter event

at St Aloysius Parish, Shenton Park

Saturday 16 September 2023

This day was a special occasion as it marked the moment that we offered our Daughters of Mary Schoenstatt program on the virtues regularly run at the Shrine in a more central location of Perth.

Linda and Charlotte, part of the Daughters of Mary program since the beginning of the year, welcomed the Mothers and Daughters group to their parish, St Aloysius in Shenton Park. For Linda and Charlotte, it was a wonderful opportunity to share their parish life with other members of the group. For the parish, hosting the group was a chance to open their doors and extend their welcome to others.

The group initially gathered outside the parish hall, where we learnt about St Aloysius Gonzaga, the history of the church building and the life of the parish. The parish is currently overseen by the Vincentian order who also support the local hospital responding to their special charism as hospital chaplains.

The Mothers enjoyed their activities in the parish's outdoor seating area and daughters in the parish hall and came together in the church for prayer and hymns. The planned activities culminated with a mother-daughter blind folded obstacle course encouraging the pairs to listen carefully to each other and to continue to build on their relationship through mutual trust and encouragement.

The afternoon ended with a beautiful spread put on in the hall, allowing the friends to enjoy each other's company over afternoon tea.

From Linda and Charlotte, a big thank you to everyone involved in preparing the activities and presenting on the day, especially to Sr Luka for her ongoing energy and enthusiasm for the group. And thank you to the parish of St Aloysius for making the group so welcome.

City Retreat

Sunday 29 October 2023

On Sunday 29 October, a City Retreat was held for mothers and their daughters, as well as young women, and we also had a couple of mums bring their own mums along, so that we had women and girls of three generations there.

We started the event at the Cathedral, then car-pooled to Kings Park, where we started our three walk sections:

Firstly, a loop walk on which mothers and daughters could talk about the theme 'journeying together' and choose an intention for today's pilgrimage back to the Cathedral. While walking, we also prayed the Divine Mercy chaplet at 3pm.

The second part was a personal quiet reflective walk modelled on Dadirri – a practice of deep listening to nature and into oneself from the Northern Territory First Nations Peoples.

After a picnic and community activity we then embarked on the final stretch of the walk leading from St Georges Terrace back to the Cathedral. For each of the sections we had a reflection and we also prayed the rosary along the way. Those who wished could finish the retreat with the 5pm evening Mass at the Cathedral.

Some echoes from the event from the participants:

I attended Schoenstatt City retreat walking together- loving the church with my twin daughters. The synodality theme – explanation of what does it mean and experiencing God walking with us along our synodal path of “togetherness” and “walking together” was the highlight of our city retreat. Great experience, peaceful time, quality mother-daughters time with God, nature, each other and other girls and women. The retreat was very well organised. I am sure that there was a lot of time, effort, and heart put into make this so special. Thank you Sr M Luka, Sharne, Janelle and all who assisted. (Daria)

I really liked the reflection part where you went with your family through the nature. I found it very relaxing. (Monique)

I am so grateful to the Daughters of Mary Team for their good work and providing the opportunity to participate in the mother and daughter city retreat. As my daughter is at the age of the beginning of becoming a young woman, dedicating this time away from the businesses of life to invite more deeply our Mother Mary into our relationship together, to pause, pray, listen, connect, celebrate and grow as mothers and daughters has been such a blessing to us and our whole family. (Laura)

The people there were so friendly, and I enjoyed spending time with my mum on the bush walk. (Emily)
